

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

AD/CONDUCTOR

ORCHESTRA INDIANA

Orchestra Indiana is in its second season as the newly-combined orchestras of Muncie Symphony Orchestra and the Marion Philharmonic Orchestra serving the East Central Indiana region.

The newly-formed orchestra has built upon more than seventy years of experience in providing an outstanding musical experience for East Central Indiana with Interim Artistic Director Matthew Kraemer.

Concerts of the past two seasons have included Classical Masterworks, Philharmonic Pops, and Annual Specials.

Orchestra Indiana musicians include many full-time professionals, university professors, area public school teachers, and members of the local communities.

EAST CENTRAL INDIANA

Living in East Central Indiana is a pleasant experience. The area has numerous universities, hospitals, and cultural venues.

The Arts Community is alive in East Central Indiana, and Orchestra Indiana plays a leading role in cultural development as well as classical music appreciation. A vibrant educational outreach program is facilitated by Orchestra Indiana to ensure the next generation of musicians.

East Central Indiana is known for affordability, accessibility, and ease of living.
